FOREWORD

We, the Class of 1951, exemplify well the youth of America. Our problems, failures, and opinions at times seem trivial and unimportant to the adult population of our country.

The majority of the people look upon us as carefree. happy-go-lucky individuals who are never serious about anything. On the contrary, we have our serious side, but because of our youth we are less likely to ponder long on the grave problems which confront the world.

Our "Memories" is presented as a record of youth's accomplishments and activities, both educational and recreational, with the hope that it will lead to a greater understanding and respect for youth's outlook on life.

School Board Plans Improvements

The Marple-Newtown School Board is made up of ten businessmen from our community. During the past school year these men have been instrumental in improving our school by landscaping the front, painting the lower halls, and beginning work on a new six-room addition to the high school.

In addition to these projects, the steering committee was formed and is progressing on the problem of getting Marple-Newtown High School properly accredited.

To these men who work unthanked and who give up much of their leisure time to make the high school a better one, we wish to extend our deepest appreciation.

Principal's Message to the Class of 1951

A great American essayist once said that no young person ever expected to die. He meant that the end of this earthly existence is so remote that youth does not give it any consideration. It is true that most of us do not worry about matters that are remote, but this does not remove the fact that such matters have a habit of approaching us "like a thief in the night." It is a common experience to hear an elderly person say, "I simply do not know where all the years have gone."

And so, since we cannot stop the onward march of time, would it not be better to heed the words of the British poet who, when speaking of old age, said, "The best is yet to be"? How can we fill these words with truth? Simply by guiding our youthful years along pathways of carefully planned and right living. The Bible enjoins us to remember God while we are young. Pay serious attention to this injunction; it will pay big spiritual dividends in the years to come. Read books that are worth while; select the better radio and television programs. Do not postpone the start of building future financial security; begin systematic saving now. Remember that we get out of life no more than we put into it, and a happy old age is built on a program of thinking of and doing for others, as well as for ourselves; this program must be started in our younger years.

You are about to leave high school and enter broader fields. The guidance of your lives will rest increasingly upon your own shoulders. Follow such rules as those outlined above and you will surely enter upon a happy and fruitful adult life.

HARRY L. SANDERS

IN MEMORIAM

This page is dedicated to the memory of "Pop" Sanders, who on Friday, October 20, died suddenly while driving home from school. He left many, many friends in sadness over the death of their friend, teacher, and all around pal.

Mr. Harry L. Sanders was born in Kutztown, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Kutztown State Teachers' College.

Mr. Sanders was past president of the Industrial Arts Association of Delaware County and was a Mason. He was a member of Christ Lutheran Church, Upper Darby, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Sanders came to M-N in 1942, and because of his efforts our shop became well-known in the field of plastics throughout the surburban and Philadelphia areas.

Seniors Have Many Memories

When the Seniors are old and have crutches and glasses,
We'll look back on the fun that we had in our classes,

We'll remember that Hamlet and panel discussions,
Were just as distasteful to us as the Russians,

Although shorthand and typing seemed hard to us then,
We'll still long for the days that will ne'er come again.

We'll remember the teachers who gave us a D,
When we knew very well we deserved just an E.

The absentee list in the month of November,
Increased quite a bit as we're sure to remember.

We can never forget, for a very good reason,
When the hockey team gave us a wonderful season.

The games and the dances and good times together,
Will exist in our minds just as clearly as ever.

Although youth disappears with the years fleeting by,
We will still have our Mem'ries from old M-N High.

Juniors Move Forward

This year the Junior Class is proud of its record. We had a magazine drive this fall that put a substantial sum into our treasury.

Our class did much to promote a driving course which will begin next year.

Members of our class participated in all school activities, and they made a fine showing in each of them.

We welcomed several new members into our class. They were Norma Zambito, Ann Lou Schafer, Francie Huggler, John Sloan, Glen Remington, Michael Mallon, Andy Morey, Barbara Seabold, and Betty Stephenson.

The Junior members of the Tri-Hi-Y were victorious in the sale of Easter eggs.

We topped off the year with our Junior Prom with a South Pacific theme.

On September 7 the largest sophomore class of Marple-Newtown history entered the building.

Throughout the year our class has participated in practically all activities. We have had varsity members on the hockey, football, basketball, and baseball teams. There were sophomores in the Minstrel Show and the Senior Play and on the Debate Squad.

Our class president, Calvin King, left us in February, and his office was taken over by George Cubbler, Vice-President.

Our Soph Hop was the first sophomore dance to have "live music."

All in all, we hope we have made the school happily conscious of our presence.

Freshman Class Finds its Stride

This year the boys and girls of the freshman class have participated in many sports, a few being football, lacrosse, baseball, hockey and basketball. Other activities included the minstrel show, the junior chorus, and the band.

The freshman dance, "My Blue Heaven," turned out to be a big success.

We welcomed many new pupils to our class and hope they found us friendly.

We thank the teachers for their cooperation and many kindnesses to the class of '54.

Eighth Graders Assume Responsibilities

Mr. Raffensperger's homeroom officials are President, Harry Munns; Vice-President, McKie Kofeldt; Secretary, Louis Wilson.

Terry Moore represents the Eighth Grade in Student Council. Harry Munns is his alternate.

Terry Moore, Harry Munns, James Taylor, Charles Harkins, Roger Colley, Leonard Cella, John Gilmor, Peter Day, Bruce Forbes, and Robert Di Labio are on the Junior High basketball team. Vincent Mackay and Robert Wilson are the managers of the team.

Several members of the Eighth Grade took part in the Minstrel Show and some intend to participate in the Spring Concert.

The Eighth Grade has two representatives on the Mar-News. They are Diane Herman and Carol Stuhlmuller.

The Eighth Graders look forward to going to the Ninth Grade, where they may take part in many more activities.

SEVENTH GRADE

Seventh Graders Numerous and Busy

September marked the beginning of a new kind of school life for the students coming into Marple-Newtown High.

We had quite a few students coming from schools other than Marple and Newtown Grade Schools.

The work is not so hard as some of us thought it would be. There aren't as many dances as we expected, either, but all in all, we like it.

ACTIVE STUDENT COUNCIL

This year the Student Council has truly been a very active group. Although many problems were brought before it, it has always managed to solve them. These are a few of many accomplishments:

1. Selling ticket books and issuing A. A. memberships.
2. Awarding felt shields to the junior high's second basketball team.
3. Giving gold-filled hockey pins to the Girls' Varsity Hockey team.
4. Securing new drapes, the new look, and the record player for the cafeteria.
5. Presenting the need and urgency of a driver training course, which will be instituted next year.
6. Securing permission for students to listen to the World Series.
7. Granting permission to the Sophomores to have an orchestra for their dance.
8. Sponsoring an annual clean-up campaign.
9. Securing Redi-Foot sprays for the boys' and girls' shower rooms.
10. Organizing the annual A. A. Drive to secure funds from the community to buy athletic equipment.
11. Selling greeting cards and collecting scrap metal.
12. Conducting auctions of lost-and-found articles.

The Student Council once again came through to uphold the name of Marple-Newtown, working for the best interests of all the students.

OUR ORCHESTRA WORKS HARD

The orchestra was much smaller this year than previous groups. However, it has become a compact, serious-minded group which has played difficult music.

School time was not allowed to the orchestra in the beginning of this year, so rehearsals were scheduled before school.

Under the able direction of Miss Lorana Kahn we played semi-classical numbers and Jerome Kern melodies.

The orchestra played for the Senior Play, the Spring Concert, and other engagements.

ORCHIDS DUE MONITORS

Our monitors again had the thankless task of maintaining order in the halls this year, and under the able supervision of Mr. Raffensperger, they did a creditable job.

During the "rush" periods when classes were changing, the monitors were at their posts maintaining order and reminding us to be cautious for our own protection.

To these guardians of our safety we extend our thanks for a job "well done."

BOY WANTED

The annual senior high school play, Boy Wanted, by William Roos was presented in the M-N auditorium on the evening of December 1, 1950. It was an excellent play and was said by many to be the best in quite a few years.

Paul Thompson did his usual fine job as Harold Rollins, the "boy wanted" in this case. Jeanne Entriken, Vicky Battista, and Nancy Fowle playing Nancy Hill, Cynthia Moran, and Adele Carpenter were very convincing as three senior girls just before graduation.

Ridgeway Academy is the school which these girls attended. Fine characterizations were done by Neil Graham as Professor Drake, Hope Shalles as Mrs. Holmes, the housemother, Eleanor Haynes as Miss Francis, and Leon Di Labio as Mr. Flynn.

Other school girls, Doris, Margaret, and Linda were acted nicely by Patricia Moran, Anne Walmsley, and Dolores Davis.

Charles Cella was excellent as Harold's pal, Fred, and Robert Comer as Rodney Faulkner, Adele's fiance, did an equally fine job.

Dorothy Wardle, Lloyd Shaver, Carol Braun, and Robert MacQueen turned in fine performances as Mr. and Mrs. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Rollins, the problem parents of problem children.

A lot of praise and credit should go to Mr. F. W. Brown for all his hard work in this year's production. Nancy Perkins, Janice Smeby, Joe Standen, and Larry Miller who headed the stage design and construction crews should receive a great measure of applause. In fact, sincere thanks go to everyone who helped to make this year's play one of the finest.

DEBATERS COME OUT ON TOP

The subject debated this year was, "Resolved, The American People Should Reject the Welfare State."

Both teams are certainly to be congratulated on the wonderful job they did. Losing only two debates by a few points, our debaters, coached by Mr. Stephen Kachur, tied for first with Ridley Township and Nether Providence.

Two members of the team graduate this year, but with all the prospects they have for next year we are certain they will again come out on top.

NEWSPAPER STAFF WORKS HARD

The "Mar-News," under the direction of Mrs. Betty Marlino, has made strides toward our goal of modernizing the paper. The staff was decreased, making fewer people do more work. The change of printers resulted in clearer pictures and type.

It was the desire of all members of the staff to publish the paper more than five times a year, but because of financial difficulties they found it impossible. With the changes being made around the school and with all the students interested in being on the staff next year, we are certain the "Mar-News" will be a bigger and better publication.

GLEE CLUB GAINS MOMENTUM

This year, M-N students provided the Marple Lions' Club with a chorus for their first Minstrel Show. This group under the direction of Miss Lorana Kahn worked like demons to help the Lions present their very successful show in October. Every member of the chorus enjoyed working with this fine organization and being in the show.

The annual Spring Festival with the orchestra, band, and junior and senior choruses was given in May. Miss Kahn and our student music teacher, Mr. Albert Leader, worked hard to make this concert better than ever.

In addition to many unusual and different songs, the choruses sang a few old Jerome Kern favorites. The music was enjoyed by everyone who attended the festival.

This year the chorus has really grown. The membership has increased and a great many more boys have become interested. The members are also learning they must work hard to be good. These factors produced a better choral group of which Marple-Newtown can proudly boast.

TRI-HI-Y ACCOMPLISHES MUCH

This year, as before, the Tri-Hi-Y has been very active. The season started off with an outdoor initiation party for new members at Ned Nedurian's. Everyone had a wonderful time.

On December 2, the girls were hostesses at a dance given for the Hi-Y boys of Eastern Pennsylvania at Lower Merion High School.

At Christmas time the girls played Santa Claus to the Chester Day Nursery. Gifts and refreshments brought by the girls made the party a success.

Easter eggs were sold again this year by the sophomore and junior members. The money raised went towards the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Canteen and special dances were sponsored by the Club.

The Club held its annual swimming party at the West Chester Y. M. C. A., where everyone had a wonderful time swimming, bowling, dancing, and eating.

One of the highlights of the year was the entertaining of the Ward Five fellows from Valley Forge General Hospital.

The Tri-Hi-Y Club again gave an award to the member of the senior class excelling in a reading test.

HI-Y HAS FULL YEAR

This year marked the third year since the organization of the Hi-Y. The club under the guidance of Mr. Kachur and Bob Comer, its President, enjoyed an active year.

Twenty newly voted-in members were initiated into the club at a dance last fall. Their funny antics and dress provided the crowd with much amusement.

After settling down to club life, they enjoyed many other club activities. These included a swimming party at West Chester, a party sponsored by the Germantown Tri-Hi-Y, and a big Hi-Y jamboree. The jamboree was held on March 31 with the Criterions from West Chester furnishing the music. Members from many of the Main Line Hi-Y clubs were present.

After successfully getting under way, the Hi-Y feels sure that the members of the future will carry on to make the Hi-Y one of the best organizations in the school.

CHEERLEADERS INSPIRE TEAMS

The cheerleaders showed lots of spirit and enthusiasm as they led the yells of the football and basketball fans this year.

Their pep wasn't the only thing they added to the games though—much could be said for the attractive appearance of the M-N cheerleaders. About the only exception to their rule of attractiveness was during the Indian pep meeting which they staged for an assembly program. At that time the cheerleaders were seen wrapped in bright Indian blankets and topped with football helmets trimmed in brightly colored paper feathers. "Big Chief" Ellie Haynes and her "warriors" did a war dance and wished the team "heap good luck" in their games.

June Scheid was head cheerleader and capably directed the other members of the squad both at the games and during practice sessions.

INEXPERIENCED GRIDDERS FIGHT HARD

This year marked the beginning of a new system under a new coach. When practice began, Coaches Nye and Harvey had only four lettermen from the year before, so this year was a year for building and gaining experience. Although the season record was poor, one win and nine losses, we lose only a few lettermen this year. They are MacLaughlin, Schneider, Noll, Shaver, Standen, and Spiller.

At the close of the season a banquet sponsored by the M. N. A. C. was given in honor of the team. Guest speakers were Bosh Pritchard and Lou Elverson. Awards were given to Charles Schneider, outstanding player of the year; Jack Noll, outstanding lineman of the year; and also to Ronald Brown, outstanding sportsman.

Left to right, front row: Harry Nask, Lloyd Shaver, Robert Comer, Neil Graham, David Mook, George Cubbler, Lowell Underhill. Second row: Mr. William Richute, Robert Trowbridge, Alan Bortle, Robert Barone, Myrick Freeman, James Simpson, Theodore Hall, John Beers, Leonard MacQueen, Tony Dutton, Thomas Moore Mr. William Nye. Third row: William Moore, Leon Di Labio. John Hottenstein, John Stone, Donald Gorman.

The Junior High came through with one win and four losses this season. They edged out Aldan in an exciting game for their only win of the season. The team, under Coach Pittman, gained a lot of valuable experience for future years with the varsity team. Those players lost through graduation to the varsity are Shaw, Reese, Low, Moore, Green, Mumford, Manges, and Hoffman.

HOCKEY GIRLS UNDEFEATED

For the first time in the history of the school, Marple Newtown girls have had an undefeated season! The girls are justly proud of this record—such records are only earned by a combination of hard work and fighting spirit.

Mrs. Reggie Wade started the girls on their way but had to leave in the middle of the season when she and her husband moved to Florida. Miss Lois McClelland then took over the team and finished out the season with them.

Nancy Kay was high scorer for the varsity with eight points, and Marlene Bricker led the junior varsity with three points.

Following the last game, the juniors honored the senior players at an informal party in the school cafeteria, where food and singing were the major forms of entertainment—plus an appropriate trinket and a poem for each of the seniors.

Climax of the season was their special invitation to attend the athletic banquet. At the banquet, each of the girls received a small gold hockey stick, just to remind them of the terrific, undefeated season—as if they could ever forget it!

GIRLS' SQUAD SHOWS FIGHT AND SPIRIT

The basketball squad this year had just two girls with previous varsity experience. They were Janice Young, our speedy center forward, and Leilia Wilson, our very capable right guard. It's a happy thought that both these girls, in addition to center guard Edna Mae Dougherty, are juniors and will be on hand for another year of competition. The other varsity players were seniors and will be greatly missed when next season rolls around—we hate to lose June Scheid's expert ball-handling, Blanche Gery's shooting accuracy, and Aline Creyaufmiller's ability to intercept passes and grab those rebounds!

After a loss to Media and a win over Upper Chi in practice games, the varsity girls started off with an easy win over Nether Providence 53-31. Blanche Gery was really on a scoring spree in that game and netted 30 points, with June Scheid cornering 18 for 2nd honors. However, following that game something snapped and we lost some hard-fought and exciting games to Prospect Park, Radnor, Yeaden, Sharon Hill, Springfield, and Clifton Heights. In two of the most exciting games we ran short on time, and Yeadon downed us 35-31, and Clifton Heights topped us 28-26 as the final whistle blew.

Blanche Gery won top scoring honors for the varsity with a total of 110 points and a game average of 16 points. Alice Rohrer paced the junior varsity with a total of 52 points.

One of the highlights of the season was our 42-27 victory over the alumnae. Again in this game Blanche Gery was high scorer with 27 points.

Our very efficient manager this year was Betty Kemp who did much to cheer the players and to help the coach, Miss Lois McClelland. Eve Coan and Ruth Burton were Betty's assistants.

M-N COURTMEN QUALIFY FOR DISTRICT PLAYOFFS

Under its new coach, Mr. Richute, the basketball team had one of its better seasons. The team ended the regular season with an 11-6 record and gained the PIAA District I Class "C" Playoffs for the first time. By defeating Morgantown, the team advanced to the district finals only to lose, 61-49, to Jenkintown.

Neil Graham with 272 points and Bob Comer with 257 points accounted for most of the scoring during the year while Dave Mook was the principal playmaker.

The Jayvees under Mr. Rathey, and later Mr. Nye, had a fair season and should help replace the graduating lettermen, Graham, Comer, Mook, Shaver, and Bob MacQueen.
